Mr. Timothy Brian Cole
[REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Cole:

I hope this letter reached you. My name is Jerry Wayne Johnson. I'm presently a Texas prisoner.

You may recall my name from your 1986 rape trial in Lubbock. Your Lubbock attorney, Mike Brown, tried to show I committed the rape.

I have been trying to locate you since 1995 to tell you I wish to confess I did in fact commit the rape Lubbock wrongly convicted you of. It is very possible that through a written confession from me and DNA testing you can finally have your name cleared of the rape and be removed from being a parolee, registered sex offender and to received compensation for the time you were wrongly incarcerated.

If this letter reaches you, please contact me by writing so that we can arrange to take the steps to get the process started. Whatever it takes, I will do it.

You may call or write to my parents if you feel you need to and they will help in any way they can.

I hope to hear back from you soon.

Sincerely,
Jerry Johnson
